

SENATORS PROVE EASY FOR BOSTON

Champions Fall on Hughes in the Eighth.

POUNDED OUT A VICTORY

Washington Solons Get in Two Homers—Selbach's Star Play.

BOSTON, Sept. 5.—The Senators arrived here this morning, to play a series of three games with the champions. The weather was partly cloudy, but there was a big attendance at the opening game, almost 8,000 people being present. The champions defeated the visitors in an interesting game, up to the eighth inning, when the champions fell on Hughes for six hits, two bases on balls, which netted seven runs, giving them the game beyond all doubt.

Washington started off in the first as though they were going to do things to Winter. O'Neill hit the first ball pitched for a home run. Jake Stahl was safe on Collins' error, stole second and scored on Mullin's single. The Senators added another in the second on Hughes' home run in the nuptial in deep right field. One in the Seventh.

No more runs were scored by the visitors until the seventh inning, when a base on balls, a wild throw by Farrell and Hill's single netted one more. In the ninth Washington scored a run on the visitors, Hughes, O'Neill and Hill, three singles by Hughes, O'Neill and Hill, two in the seventh on singles by Selbach and Collins.

The disastrous eighth has been previously told. The features of the game were the hitting of Hughes and O'Neill for the visitors, Collins, for the locals, making two home runs. A star catch by Selbach in short field off Kittredge's bat, which prevented the visitors from scoring two runs in the eighth and taking the lead. Score by innings:

WONDERFUL RECORD FOR GREAT HAMBURG

Hamburg, the thoroughbred stallion by Hanover-Lady Reel, has made a record on the track and in the stud that is unique in the history of racehorses. While he raced he was the fastest horse in America, and since his sons and daughters have been racing, the oldest is only three years of age—they have won $160,000 in stakes and purses. His record of eight wins in Futurity winners in succession—Hamburg Belle in 1902 and Artful in 1904—has focused on the young sire the eyes of all the breeders in America.

FOURTH DEFEATS COMMISSIONERS LONGEST EVENT KNOWN TO TRAP

Church League Boys Win by Score of 2 to 1.

TWO HITS OFF DONALDSON

Presbyterian Twirler Did Not Allow a Safety After the First Inning.

The Fourth Presbyterian team, champions of the Church League, triumphed over the Commissioners, at the Seventh Street grounds, this morning, in one of a series of games to determine the amateur championship of the District, by 2 to 1.

Throughout the game was interesting and kept the 700 spectators on their toes until the last man was retired.

Donaldson a Puzzle. To Will Donaldson, who pitched for the Fourth, is due most of the credit for his team's victory. He held the hard-hitting Commissioners down to two singles, and did not allow a hit after the first inning. In only one inning after the first—the fifth—more than three men face him.

Cantwell also twirled well for the Commissioners, the Fourth bunting his hits off him in only one inning. Seven errors were made in all, but only one counted in the run-getting. Atchison's overthrow in the first inning giving the Commissioners their only tally.

Both of the Fourth's runs came in the fifth inning. Warman was out, but Donaldson hit to right center for two bases. He went to third on Bradley's out, and scored on a hard single to center by Bishop. Bishop tallied on Atchison's two-bagger.

The Score.

Two Holiday Matches For Sea Girt Cracks

Revolver and Interclub Events Today—Regret at Failure of Cadet Contest—How Dryden Trophy Originated.

RIFLE RANGE, SEA GIRT, N. J., Sept. 5.—Two team matches—the revolver and the interclub—are today holding the attention of the interstate camp of riflemen here for the tournament of the National and New Jersey Rifle Associations. The cadet match, which was scheduled for today, will not take place. At the failure to pull off this contest there is very general regret. It was to take the place of the West Point-Annapolis match, which the National Rifle Association announced for several years, but which, on account of the failure of the army authorities to detail a West Point team, was never shot for. The competition, thrown open to all institutions of learning in which there is a course in military instruction by an officer detailed from the War Department, goes by default. It is said that the lack of the national arm kept away teams from schools which otherwise would have been represented.

Chance for Revolvers. The revolver team match, which the National Association has taken over, somewhat changed, from the program of the New Jersey Association, is open to teams of five from the National Guard, the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps, and from any foreign government. It is fifteen shots, deliberate fire, a time limit of one shot a minute, and by the Manhattan Rifle and Revolver Association of New York, is for the rifle club championship of the United States. The teams for five, ten shots at 200 yards.

Sunday the riflemen spent mainly in visiting the neighboring resorts. In the morning divine service was held on the grounds of the clubhouse of the New Jersey Rifle Association. Chaplain J. Madison Hare, of the Third New Jersey, preached from the piazza.

Dryden Cup Story. An interesting story attaches to the Dryden trophy, which will be shot for at the annual meeting of the National Rifle Association this month. During the short session of the last Congress a number of men anxious to secure an appropriation for a national trophy and an annual shoot visited Washington, and at their suggestion Representative Mondell of Wyoming, a member of the House Committee on Military Affairs, introduced such a bill. It received the hearty endorsement of the Adjutant General, and was favorably reported by the Military Committee, but was held up in the House by the Committee on Rules.

Shortly before the end of the session those interested called on Speaker Henderson, who told them that the bill could not pass. In despair, Representative Dick, chairman of the Military Committee, now Senator from Ohio; Representative Mondell, Col. E. J. Dimmick, and Gen. Bird W. Spencer, president of the National Rifle Association, crossed to the Senate wing and solicited the good offices of Senator Dryden. While at luncheon the facts were laid before Senator and finally he said: "I will get your bill added to the Army Appropriation bill as an amendment. There sits Senator Proctor opposite, and I will go over and talk to him about it."

Gave $4,000 Trophy. Senator Dryden laid the matter before Senator Proctor, then acting chairman of the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, who demurred very strongly against accepting any such amendment, saying it was contrary to custom and that it was impossible for it to pass. Senator Dryden, however, maintained his ground, and in the end Senator Proctor was won over, with the result that an annual appropriation of $2,500 for this purpose was added to the bill. Meanwhile Senator Dryden had become so interested in the proposition that he sent for several officers of the National Rifle Association and said: "I want to give a trophy that will perpetuate this rifle shoot on your Sea Girt range," and after inspecting several designs, gave an order for a trophy costing $4,000 to be contested for annually. In addition, he offered a cash prize of $500 to go with the trophy and arranged that it should be continued after his death.

In recognition of Senator Dryden's generosity he was made a life member of the National Rifle Association.

Personal Comment on Men and Things in the Olympic Games

Lightfoot again demonstrated himself as one of the best and most versatile runners of the day, when he won his third championship of the meeting, the 1,500 meter. He had already won the 800-meter run and the 2,500-meter steeplechase. He set new marks in both the flat runs.

The time in the 440-yard handicap was poor for such a meet. To win it in 59.45 seconds, with a 12-yard handicap, as Marcy did, does not reflect a great deal of credit on him or the company in which he was racing. The straight-away record of 132 seconds, made by Maxey Long in 1900, and the mark for a round track, 47.4-5, was also made by Long in 1900.

Rose, who broke the shot-put record, showed up much better in the hand-

Blood Troubles

Bad blood is the source of numerous aches and pains and the cause of nearly all stubborn, long-continued diseases. When the blood gets out of order disease germs and poisons of various kinds find their way into the circulation and some serious trouble is the result. Rheumatism, Malaria, Old Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Anemia, and many pustular or scaly skin eruptions, like Eczema, Salt Rheum and Tetter, skin eruptions and other symptoms on different parts of the body, so I can testify to the fact that my blood was bad, and only a number of bottles of my blood was relieved of all eruptions and manifestations of impure blood. I believe your S. S. S. to be an excellent blood medicine, and the best of such to go with the medicine, and that it will be of at least ten or fifteen rounds' duration.

Years ago my blood was bad, as evidenced by eruptions and other symptoms on different parts of the body, so I can testify to the fact that my blood was bad, and only a number of bottles of my blood was relieved of all eruptions and manifestations of impure blood. I believe your S. S. S. to be an excellent blood medicine, and the best of such to go with the medicine, and that it will be of at least ten or fifteen rounds' duration.

You can't check a blood disease by any external treatment; the sores and eruptions that appear upon the surface of the body are only manifestations or symptoms of some internal disorder that cannot be reached from the outside. No blood remedy has gained such wide-spread popularity as S. S. S., the great vegetable blood purifier. It antidotes the poisons, humors and acids that are the real cause of disease, cleanses and enriches the blood, and builds up at the same time the general health. S. S. S. invigorates all the organs and parts of the system and stimulates them to greater activity, and strong nerves and renewed health is the result. If you have any blood trouble, write us about it. No charge whatever for medical advice.

AROUND-THE-WORLD TRIP IS GIVEN UP

Giants Will Go to Cuba Instead.

WANT POST-SEASON GAMES

New York Nationals Willing to Play American League Winners—Think Boston Has Best Chance.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The around-the-world trip of the Giants and Chicago Colts has been given up. The Giants will instead take a trip on their own hook to Cuba, and all those who are going, and they will include most of the team, have already deposited $100 each as a guarantee that they will make the tour.

Baseball is all the rage just now in Cuba, and the Giants, with the prestige they will carry with them as champions, sure winners. Crowds will witness their games with the native teams. But how much more would the Giants be if they could visit the island as the world's champions.

There is an undercurrent of feeling, too, among the coming National League champions, that the world's championship series will be played.

Players Keep Mum. The players are not willing to talk about it, having been called off, but from a word dropped now and then it's very well understood that Manager McGraw himself wants to have the team he is proud of tackle the winners of the American League pennant, whichever club it may be.

It is understood that the Giants' great little manager is not afraid of any team on earth, but he is being held back by the powers that be. However, the prospects of the series being played are much brighter now than ever.

"I want to give a trophy that will perpetuate this rifle shoot on your Sea Girt range," and after inspecting several designs, gave an order for a trophy costing $4,000 to be contested for annually. In addition, he offered a cash prize of $500 to go with the trophy and arranged that it should be continued after his death.
